

As a law firm, we know that words are important, but action is critical. As part of our ongoing commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion, we are taking prompt actions for our members and our communities that include increased focus on education, talent, time and resources to combat racism and social injustices. To learn more, visit us at wnj.com.

Warner